I wish to thank you for your good letter of October 22, 1951. I should like to suggest that when you are next in Washington you give me a call. If, as indicated, your interest is only on a "short term basis" I doubt whether there would be any opening here of the type that would really interest you. If you wanted to look at it on a longer term basis, of course without any formal commitment, I should wish to go into the matter more thoroughly.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
